

From the AIR PROGRAM

Air Quality Awareness Week Begins May 4th

EPA AirNow, NOAA National Weather Service, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), U.S. Forest Service, and U.S. Department of State, announce that Air Quality Awareness Week 2020 will be celebrated May 4 – 8, 2020. The theme this year is Better Air, Better Health! The goal is to promote events that increase air quality awareness and encourage people to check the Air Quality Index (AQI) daily. There are even daily topics:

- Monday - Wildfires & Smoke
- Tuesday - Asthma & Your Health
- Wednesday - Where's Your AQI Coming From?
- Thursday - Air Quality Around the World
- Friday – Air quality educational resources for families and teachers

ACTIVITY:

Your kids, or you, can draw a picture the cloud picture below, and the list above can help with ideas. Then take a photo and post it with #AQAW2020. To have your picture featured in the follow up Air newsletter article, text it to the Air Program at 760-784-4037.

I care about clean air because ...
